ANNUAL REPORT

The Woods are lovely, dark and deep..... yet I have miles to go before I sleep. It gives me immense pleasure to present the Annual report of our College for the academic year 2019-2020.

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS CONVENTION

This year, our college had the privilege of hosting a mega event, i.e. the XXVII HSNC Board's International Economics Convention – 2019 from December 12th to December 14th, 2019.

The theme of the XXVII International Economics Convention – 2019 was “Human Capital Development through Higher Education – Lessons for India”.

As a host college, Smt. Mithibai Motiram Kundnani College of Commerce and Economics was required to present the overall theme presentation during the Inaugural ceremony on 12th December 2019. With this began our preparation for organizing the prestigious XXVII International Economics Convention – 2019 on a grand scale.

The entire competition was judged by three eminent and research-oriented judges.

- 2) Dr. Hemlata Manglani – Dept. of Economics, Central University of Rajasthan

Most of the chairpersons appointed for each technical session were the former principals and former faculty of our college. The IEC had one foreign team participating in the convention, namely the University of West Georgia (UWG) from the USA.

It was an arduous process of selecting the best teams of the convention. Finally, the laurels were received by the following teams:

EDITORIAL

The academic year 2019-20 was a remarkable year in myriad ways. It witnessed both negative and positive aspects of life in the form of death, destruction and despair as well as growth, survival and the spirit of resurgence. We are reminded that, in the darkest hour and in the darkest night, a ray of hope surfaces up, opening the first window on to the world. Someone has rightly said, 'End is a new beginning' Hail Humanity!

Our college (a microcosm of Mumbai) has been trying to spring back to life and activity during this unprecedented time through digital medium catering to the educational needs of our students.

We know deep down that Life is short, and nothing is guaranteed, but one should not be afraid of life either. Dear students, invest your heart and soul into whatever you have right in front of you. Everything will change again soon. Embrace change and realize in many ways it's necessary. It won't always be obvious at first, but in the end most forms of change are worthwhile because they force us to grow. What you have today may become what you had by tomorrow. You never know. Things change, often spontaneously. People and circumstances come and go. Life doesn't stop for anybody. It moves rapidly and rushes from calm to chaos in a matter of seconds and happens like this to people every day.

Sometimes the shortest split second in time changes the direction of our lives. A seemingly innocuous decision rattles our whole world like a meteorite striking Earth. Entire lives have been swiveled and flipped upside down, for better or worse, on the strength of an unpredictable event. And these events are always happening — like the COVID-19 epidemic right now.

So just remember, however good or bad a situation is now, it will change. That's the one thing you can count on. Accept it. Changing your response is what puts you back in control. Life's storms can be a great source of strength.

Hard times are like strong storms that blow against you. And it's not just that these storms hold you back from places you might otherwise go. They also tear away from you all but the essential parts of your ego that cannot be torn, so that afterward you see yourself as you really are, and not merely as you might like to be.

Accept the feeling of not knowing exactly where you are going, and train yourself to love and appreciate this sensation of freedom. Because it is only when you are suspended in the air, with no destination in sight, that you force your wings to open fully so you can fly. And as you soar around you still may not know where you're traveling to. But that's not what's important. What's important is the opening of your wings. You may not know where you're going, but you know that so long as your wings are spread, the winds will carry you forward.

Truth be told, some of the greatest outcomes that transpire in your life will be the ones you never even knew you wanted. If you keep your mind open to new perspectives and you moving forward, there really are no wrong turns in life, only paths you didn't know you were meant to travel. And you never can be certain what's around the corner.

It could be everything, or it could be nothing. You keep gliding steadily forward, and then one day you realize you've come a long way from where you started.

That rings a bell that our college is also a year older and it gives us a great pleasure to bring before you this edition of our college magazine 'Beacon' which echoes the thoughts and literary endeavours of our students and projects glimpses of their stellar performance in academic and extra-curricular activities.

We avail this opportunity to express our gratitude to our Principal Dr.CA Kishore Peshori, under whose valuable guidance, our team could present the current edition of Beacon. We express our gratefulness to the Management, Principal, Vice Principals, teaching staff and administrative staff for their incessant support to bring out the current edition of Beacon. I acknowledge the sincere efforts put in by the student editor.

I thank Rinkal Stationery for bringing out this issue of Beacon.

We sign off on a more promising note of 'Hope' and 'Progress' as the saying goes 'Every Tomorrow is a better Tomorrow' and that 'Change is Inevitable'.

AIDED SECTION REPORTS

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS CONVENTION

Our XXVII International Economics Convention – 2019 patronized by the HSNC board was hosted by the college from December 12th to December 14th, 2019. The theme of the Convention – 2019 was discussed and deliberated during the concluding meeting of the XXVI International Economics Convention hosted by K.C. College on 15th December 20018. “Human Capital Development through Higher Education – Lessons for India” was finalized as the theme of XXVII International Economics Convention – 2019.

As a host college, Smt. Mithibai Motiram Kundnani College of Commerce and Economics was required to present the overall theme presentation during the Inaugural ceremony on 12th December 2019. With this began our preparation for organizing the prestigious XXVII International Economics Convention – 2019 on a grand scale. The first meeting of the Convention – 2019 was organized on 20th June 2019 at our college. All the final dates for events were finalized as follows:

- 1 Title Presentation – 20th July 2019: Title presentation of five minutes duration for each college was held at our Dr. L.H. Hiranandani Memorial Conference Room. Our foreign team, University of West Georgia, also participated in the event right from the beginning and presented their title presentation via Skype.
- 2 Submission of Executive Summary and Team Photographs – 21st September 2019: All the participating teams were required to submit the team photograph consisting of all the students working on the research paper and presentation.
- 3 Submission of Final Book Reports – 23rd November 2019: The final hard copy of the Research papers was to be submitted by all the participating teams in hard and soft copies latest by 23rd November 2019.

As per the suggestions given by our Principal (In-charge), Dr. CA. Kishore S. Peshori and accepted by all the members of the Department of Economics, most of the chairpersons appointed for each technical session were the former Principals and former faculty members of our college.

The XXVII IEC had one foreign participating team , namely the University of West Georgia (UWG) from the United States of America. After the super-competitive technical sessions by the participating teams, it was an arduous process of selecting the best teams of the convention.

India has been traditionally a cash-based economy with limited penetration of formal banking and other financial services. But now India is witnessing a transformation of the financial sector with new Payments Banks being established for achieving the dream of a fully banked country.

BBI, commercial banks, GOI and other stakeholders have undertaken several initiatives recently to promote Financial Inclusion. Payment Banks are a good way of reaching the masses for even the smallest payment at odd hours. It can effectively cater to the needs of the unbanked area population with easy access through M-banking.

Banking sector reforms in India constituted a paradigm shift during the post economic liberalization period wherein almost all commercial banks started to use modern methods and expansion of their business by achieving cost effectiveness in the intense competition.

During the current Academic Year 2019-2020 some significant activities conducted by BBI department for the development of students' academic and life skills are mentioned below:

Inculcating a strong higher education base can be the right technique of solving many socio-economic problems which are inherited over generations. In order to achieve a strong higher education base "Research" aptitude and attitude are essential. True objective research makes education neutral and immensely useful to the society at large.

Janmashtmi Celebration (Book Handi)

Culture committee had celebrated Janmashtami in the college. The theme for this was 'Book Handi'. There were posters related to SAVE WATER. Model of a village was created. Event was covered in 'Mid day' daily newspaper.

The makhan of wisdom

Our city is known to celebrate Janmashtami extravagantly, but here's an example of a conscious celebration. At Bandra's MMK College, the students and faculty of the NSS and BFM department created a Book Handi — a pyramid of books — symbolising how, as principal Dr CA Kishore Peshori told this diarist, "The ladder of success is made with the bricks of knowledge." About 4 feet tall, it took professors Sushant Damodare, Harsha Hardasani, Sheetal Chaddha and Vishal Tomar four days to execute along with students. The books were sourced from the college library and the mannequin was made out of newspapers. As Hardasani concluded, "This taught students that collaboration, teamwork and honest efforts lead to great accomplishments."

Will Smriti Irani take

Union Minister for Textiles Smriti Irani made a pit stop in Mumbai on Thursday to attend Sustainable Fashion Day at the ongoing IMG Reliance Lakmé Fashion Week. She launched Project SU.RE or Sustainable Resolution in collaboration with the Clothing Manufacturers Association of India. Signatories to the resolution include top fashion and retail brands such as Future Group, Raymond, House of Anita Dongre, Westside and Levi's. The giants, we are told, have committed to achieve by 2025, sustainable business practices. This means sourcing raw material that has a positive influence on the environment; reviewing the impact their product manufacture and processes have on the surroundings, etc.

This is ambitious, and much needed. We would have told this to the minister in person had she agreed to the interview this paper was approached for by the organisers. Her team, we were told, suddenly declined the interaction. We were looking forward to discuss her time at the ministry, the SU.RE initiative in particular, and what has emerged from the weavers' census that the ministry had undertaken. But, in addition to the questions fed to us by the publicists, we were hoping to discuss the schism

Women AND GENDER DEVELOPMENT CELL

The WGDC of Smt. M.M.K. College seeks to create a gender-just society by sensitizing the students and faculty to uncover the implicit biases that are inbuilt into the society we inhabit.

This endeavor started by conducting a guest lecture on "HUMAN RIGHTS IN INDIAN CONSTITUTION" by (Adv) Dr. Rashmi Oza, Professor, Department of Law, University of Mumbai. She gave an interesting insight on the constitution of India which is based on the principles of liberty, equality, fraternity and justice. The students attended the lectures in large numbers and gained from her expertise.

The WGDC invited Dr. Lata Das, Centre for Lifelong learning, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) on 24th February 2020 to interact with the students on the topic "MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES IN TODAY'S YOUTH". She explained that mental health problems can affect a student's energy level, concentration, dependability, mental ability, and optimism, hindering performance. She also highlighted the fact that depression is associated with lower grade point averages and that co-occurring depression and anxiety can increase this association.

The year concluded with a special lecture conducted for the teaching and non-teaching staff on International Women's Day on 9th March 2020. Dietician, Practicing Homeopath, Yoga master, Reiki Practitioner and Sleep-Expert Dr. Kitty Rathod spoke about the "Role of Nutrition in Women's Health". She emphasized that good nutrition is an important part of leading a healthy lifestyle. Combined with physical activity, our diet can help us to reach and maintain a healthy weight and reduce the risk of chronic diseases. Various other activities were also conducted like team building games wherein attractive prizes were given to the winners.

Team WGDC continued with their endeavours even during the lockdown period. This helped all of us stay strong and positive during these challenging times. We invited Mrs. Farhana Vohra, Life Coach and Motivational Speaker to help us build our mental resilience through her webinar - THRIVE THROUGH CHANGE. The biggest takeaway for students and teachers alike was the insight on how to manage ourselves in this unpredictable environment.

Our beloved Trustee Mrs Maya Shahani was the Chief Guest for this webinar and she shared her valuable insights with the audience.

We also organised a Yoga Worksop- Serenity Through Yoga , to commemorate the International Yoga Day on 21st June 2020. Yogini Pooja Chanchlani took us through various Asanas and breathing techniques. It was indeed a refreshing and invigorating session for all of us.

The WGDC is looking forward to more such associations in future.

IMPACT OF COVID-19 PANDEMIC ON EDUCATION - A TEACHER'S PERSPECTIVE

- 1 Every pandemic affects the lives of humans and their economic activities in different ways. To avoid the spread of Pandemic, the State had to restrict the free movement of its people (Lockdown) and halt the economic activities in the country, which necessarily had an impact on the Education system prevalent in our country.
- 2 The Stakeholders in an Education System, viz. ~ Teachers, Students, Society, Institutions and Government, all have been impacted as a result of the LockDown. Every Impact can be viewed as positive or negative. Since there is so much negativity prevalent due to the fear of pandemic as well as disruption of economic activities, we shall focus on the positive opportunities arising out of this situation, which can be capitalised for the benefit of all the stakeholders
- 3 To facilitate Teaching - Learning in an educational institution (which was earlier based on a brick and mortar model) Teachers explored use of technology for delivering the process of Learning, - video conferencing plus circulating notes, hand-outs, reading materials. The Library Resources made available to students through use of infliplibnet
- 4 All this required teachers to learn new technologies available for Teaching Learning Process. The students have readily accepted and adopted this Learning process
- 5 The Institutions are exploring ways and means to conduct exams online and for this purpose are evaluating various technologies available for the same
6. Teachers are updating their knowledge through various online webinars and faculty development programs
7. The institutions are already evaluating the process of conducting admissions online and declaration of results online
8. In a nutshell, efficient use of technology is deployed for learning and automation of administrative resources,
9. Coming to the job scenario, companies are offering internships without stipend and didactically thumping that, if at all they hire people next year, they will not be able to pay much salary.
10. Besides this, present job seekers have already seen a salary cut and no-job offer situation which raises worry among future job-seekers.
11. Students aiming to go abroad for higher education are stranded in uncertain waters during this lockdown.

Mr. Sanjay Dagia

MY EXPERIENCE

Smt. MMK college encouraged us to learn online teaching tools and techniques by giving us information about various webinars and asking us to attend them. Our college also gave us the freedom to adopt those tools with which we are comfortable and enabled us to upgrade our online teaching skills.

Our college library also helped us to cope with stay at home by giving us e-news papers every day and also e-books. I am very thankful to the principal for his progressive approach in upgrading the quality of our teaching, conducting online lectures and staying in touch with student community through various webinars.

Faites vite, Faites vite ! Ne vous arrêtez pas !
Il faut atteindre quel que chose.....
Je cours, je cours très vite
Je n'attends personne
J'ai réussi à atteindre.....
Mais je cours encore.

Personne ne t'attend le temps dit – il ?
Tu es seul dans cette course
Tes pas diront une histoire
Courez courez pour laisser vos traces
Faites vite, Faites vite !

Suivez les pas de ton rêve
Les rêves savent leur chemin.....
Je cours encore pour atteindre
Je ne sais rien le temps dit – il
Je cours, je cours très vite

Je saute et je tombe...c'est la course sans cesse
Tout le monde court, je cours.
Tu cours, il court.....
Je voudrais atteindre quel que chose.....
Faites vite..... Faites vite !

Qui suis – je ?
Et où suis – je né ?
Qui m'a donné naissance ?
Et m'a laissé sur cette terre cruelle ?
Ces questions entourent de ma vie troublée....
Poignarder mon esprit est comme des couteaux chauds,
Pourquoi dois-je travailler en plein soleil ?
D'Autres enfants jouent tandis que mes mains brûlent,
Mon aussi (je voudrais et jouer, s'amuser danser chanter)
Au cieue de faire des pots en argile,
Ce désir de mon cœur est un stylo,
Des outils non lourds pour travailler
Ma vie est sombre avec des hommes cruels.
Mais qui tiendra compte de mes larmes ?
Vous vivez comme des voies, vous n'avez pas peur.
Mais pourquoi devrais-je seul souffrir dans la douleur ?
Les cris inouïs, des jours comme de nuit
Telle est la vie de l'enfant qui travaille.....

Les Téléphones mobiles sont responsables de la diminution de la population de moineau ?

Des études scientifiques à travers le monde ont montré que les téléphones mobiles ont contribué à la diminution de la population de moineaux. Pour le téléphone portable de fonctionner sans fil, plusieurs tours sont érigées à intervalles réguliers qui transportent les signaux de et vers les téléphones. Ces tours émettrices de faible rayonnement électromagnétique de fréquences qui est considéré comme dangereux pour les moineaux et les autres oiseaux de plusieurs façons.

Comme beaucoup d'autres oiseaux, moineaux utilisent le champ magnétique de la Terre pour trouver leur chemin. Le rayonnement électromagnétiques des tours mobiles interfère avec le champ magnétique de la terre provoquant les moineaux de perdre leur chemin et avoir des accidents comme ils volent à proximité de la tour.

En raison de la radiation, moineaux vivant à proximité des tours mobiles ont été trouvés à abandonner leurs nids au débat, avec leurs œufs tandis que ne pas éclore. Une étude menée par l'Association de Recherche Environnementale Kerala, une NGO, a déclaré que les œufs de moineaux qui nichent sur les tours de téléphonie mobile n'ont pas réussi à éclore, même après un mois bien que normalement ils éclosent de 10 jours par quinzaine.

L'exposition au rayonnement électromagnétique est également considéré comme nocif pour les jeunes des moineaux comme il pénètre leurs crânes minces causant des dommages ou même la mort.

L'Amour

Aimons toujours! Aimons encore!
Quand L'amour s'en va ,l'espoir fuit.
L'amour,c'est le cri de l'aurore,
L'amour c'est l'hymne de la nuit.

Ce que le flot dit aux rivages,
Ce que le vent dit aux vieux moths,
Ce que l'astre dit aux nuages,
C'est le mot ineffable:Aimons!

L'amour fait songer ,vivre et croire.
Il rechauffe le coeur,
C'est un rayon plus que la gloire
Ce rayon d'espoir c'est le bonheur!

Aime ! meme si...on les loue ou on les blame,
Toujours les grands coeurs aimeront:
Tombons en amour de cette jeunesse de l'âme
L'âme qui est toujours jeune.

POETRY

All I could see

Walking all alone
Wearing a fake smile with such ease,
I heard the silence
When blew across
The cool breeze.

Humming a beautiful tune
With a strange glow in the eyes,
Staring at the full moon
Finding answers to lies.

The light brown hair
Fell gently like a feather,
There was neither despair
Nor a cloudy weather.

The beautiful feeling
With the calmness of the sea,
Wanted to observe more
But I guess that's all I could see.

Perplexity

If you feel you have 2 ways ahead of you
And you are not sure what to do,
Sit quiet and think again
For it would either lead you to a dull-dry path
Or a way full of happy rain.

Gather your thoughts and take it into consideration,
For no one's gonna come to you, with a readymade invitation.

Be sure before you choose the forty above sixty,
You're going to face it, it's your creativity.

Listen to your heart as well as your mind and forget the petty stuff,
Every path in this life is gonna be a little rough.

It's upto YOU, being wise or unwise in your decisions,
For unexpected ways sometimes lead to beautiful destinations.\

Reality

I was all disturbed and emotional,
My head was not in the right place
I was being rather irrational
It was one of those days when my head would burst
And my stomach would explode
It felt like I was cursed.

I closed my eyes and stared in the darkness
It looked to me first as if my life was a mess
I changed my mentality,
Quickly changed gears away from reality.

I thought of the darkness as the infinite space
A blank canvas, a clean paper, a virtual blackboard.
I colored on it with my creativity's pace
I could make anything happen.
I could change any contest, fight or race.

The sun sang for me.
While the stars danced.
The moon was on its own expeditions.
Strong men wept and wept And regretted their decisions
People who were once poor,
Now owned mansions.

The mountains were twice as high
And above them I saw freedom fly
Good was a principle and that made the bad cry.

Wildlife roamed with us without any ruckus
People 'spewed' love
The world didn't have any borders

Attitude were made of sand and hearts were made of gold
The scared ones were stone and the oppressed too became bold.
'And Many wise men told'
Only things that were relevant.

Waterfalls of compassion, Rivers flowed of empathy,
seas of love and oceans of kindness.
The world was good,
A different kind of mess.

There were no religions
No terrorism, no arguments, no fights
Everyone was one.
And no matter what, everyone always won.
Sad for me, I opened my eyes
And I realized,
REALITY IS STRANGER THAN FICTION.

चारों दिशाओं में आग हैं लगी

चारों दिशाओं में आग हैं लगी
मगर मिटाने का न कोई प्रयास
लपेटो में अटके मेरे बंधु
घूट रही हैं सबकी सांस।
कुछ ही क्षण बचे हैं,
रोक सके तो रोक लो
फिर पछताओगे तब मत दौड़ना,
अपने कर्म यही पर भोग लो
वरना जब दर्द होगा तब जानोगे,
फीलाल गेरज़ीम्मेदार बन कर मौज लो
नव भारत की खोज में
पुराना कहीं छोड़ आ गए
दूसरों की मेहनत की कमाई
ये नेता खुद ही खा गए
फ़िज़ूल बातों में हमे बेहका गए
वहां लोग मरते रह गए
उनके परिवार सेहते रह गए
आंखों में आंसू और दिल में बस यादें रह गए
एक तरफ दर्द और दूसरी तरफ,
बस बेकार के मुद्दे रह गए।

अगर हृदय में है अभी लज्जा
खुद का गुनाह कबूल कर लो
अकड़ छोड़ दो, नज़र झुका लो,
कभी भारत मां से भी माफी मांग लो।

पर सच्चाई तो यह है
हर एक में नफरत दड़ है
राजनीति इसका जड़ है
इस नफरत के पेड़ के फल,
एक दूसरे पर फेकना बंद करो
हे नालायक पुत्रो कभी अपनी मां से भी डरा करो।

चारों दिशाओं में आग है लगी
रोक सके तो रुका लो
कब तक हाथ मैं मशाल थामोगे
कभी अपने देश के बारे में भी सोच लो।

Purpose of Life is a Life of Purpose

Morrie Schwartz once said, "So many people walk around with a meaningless life. They seem half-asleep even when they're busy doing things they think are important. This is because they're chasing the wrong things." It simply means that self-sacrifice and looking outwards to others rather than focusing without a meaningful life makes one seem half-asleep even when they're doing things, they think are important.

What is the purpose of life? This is indeed a common question, but it makes one give a thought what one really wants in his life. The answers are obviously a combination of the following:-success, feeling loved, creating positive impacts on others and fortune but one wants everything. So immediately one grabs a paper and a pen and jots down the points and plans out his life to be successful, rich and the one who has influenced the world positively. Being forward 10 years from now, one sees himself exactly the way he planned but is one happy? Did he realize what all he had to lose in order to succeed?

He has probably lost a good family time, a good outing with friends, pursuing his hobby. The purpose of his life was not all bad but the only problem in this was it wasn't his own purpose. Maybe he just wanted to stay with his loved ones happily, peacefully. He was fascinated towards someone else's life goals and purposes and so he thought of making it his own life purpose. Like Mother Teresa's purpose of life was to serve the poor and destitute around the world, our father of the nation Mahatma Gandhi's life purpose was to fight for the freedom of India. Therefore, the people who had a purpose in life always outstood others who were simply busy in their routine lives.

Therefore, discovering one's own purpose is a significant step towards a meaningful life. One never discovers anything new by doing same things repeatedly. One must try and explore new things to recognize one's own purpose of life.

COMPETITION IS NECESSARY FOR DEVELOPMENT

"I have been up against tough competition all my life, I wouldn't know how to get along without it." says WALT DISNEY.

Today we are living in a world of competition. All of us are aware about the excellent progress our world is making in the fields of science and technology, markets, education, society, sports etc. Both theoretical and empirical research in recent years has emphasized the productive and dynamic efficiency gains from competition. According to a 2005 Report of the Commission for Africa stated that investors need ' effective competition laws ' to enforce improving productivity and promote innovation. Competitive markets help a nation's resources to be used to the best effect in the production of goods and services.

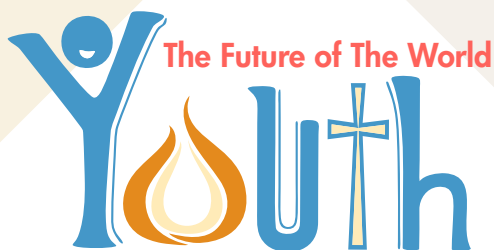

In the field of education, the competitive structure keeps both the student and the teacher motivated. Students will become enthusiastic as they will have to prove their skills against the best talent from other institutions. The spirit of competition prepares better and more competent classroom sessions with innovative and fresh ideas of teaching being devised in the pursuit of excellence, involving methodical planning of lessons, adopting efficient well-organized teaching strategies and tactics. Competition motivates the student as well as the teacher to go out of their way, work hard and give their best.

In the corporate world when firms compete, consumers get the best possible prices, best quality and quantity of goods and services. For instance, mobile phones have progressed a lot from the year 1973 with walkie-talkies, zero generation [0-G] phones, telephones etc. and ultimately to smartphones. This perceives how competition among manufacturers has led to such dynamic development and progress which ultimately benefits users. Competition not only builds the character of an individual but also produces excellence. A competitive mind can do anything which is not only for his development or success but for the betterment of humankind as well.

With an increase in population, it has become a necessity of daily life to compete for bread- butter, seats in schools and colleges etc. Competition is not just battling for ranks; it carries a sense of 'self-competition'. Competition is therefore a very effective tool to keep your high achievers achieving.

"Youth is the best time. The way in which you utilize this period will decide the nature of coming years that lie ahead of you. " Strength is Life. Weakness is Death.

Such were the words of the great Swami Vivekananda

On the 12th of January every year, National Youth Day is observed in India to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda.

The young spiritual leader who is credited with spreading the essence of Indian spirituality to the Western world had immense faith in the power of the youth of India. By upholding the teachings of Vedanta and its universal values of tolerance, acceptance and co-existence of different faiths, cultures and beliefs, he re-instilled a sense of pride amongst all Indians in their cultural heritage.

What makes Swami Vivekananda the ideal role model for the youth is the fact that he motivated the youth to be strong in body, mind and spirit, and he strongly advocated their role in nation-building. He envisioned India as a country with energetic young people, who will shape up a modern nation based on the foundation of Vedic spiritual ideals.

India is one of the youngest nations in the world, with about 65 percent population under 35 years of age. It is expected that by the year 2020, the population of India would have a median age of 28 years only as against 38 years for the US, 42 years for China and 48 years for Japan. The youth are indeed the most dynamic and vibrant segment of the population in any country.

His message was simple yet powerful. Vivekananda conveyed his ideas directly to the people, especially to the youth.

“It is the young, the strong, and healthy, of sharp intellect that will reach the Lord”, say the Vedas. This is the time to decide your future — while you possess the energy of youth, not when you are worn out and jaded, but in the freshness and vigour of youth. Work — this is the time; for the freshest, the untouched, and unsmelled flowers alone are to be laid at the feet of the Lord, and such He receives. Rouse yourselves, therefore, or life is short.”.

It is entirely fitting that 12th January, the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, is observed as National Youth Day to rekindle the eternal message of this great patriot and son of India.

The Government of India while commemorating the 150th Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda sanctioned a “Value Education Project” of the Ramakrishna Mission (an organisation established by Swami Vivekananda), to help to inculcate in children a moral compass and a value system against the tide of commercialism and consumerism that is sweeping our societies.

And as Swami Vivekananda once exhorted, “Arise! Awake! And stop not till the goal is reached”, let us all unite and work for the country with Purity, patience, and perseverance as the Swami felt long ago that these three are essentials to success

Eco-friendly festivals

In India, people love celebrating festivals as festivals bring them together. Festivals take place in every part of India throughout the year. While festivals are supposed to be peaceful and homage for god and goddesses, it has now turned into great show of pomp and wealth.

In the name of celebrations people harm the environment around them. They are now one of the major sources of air, sound, land, and water pollution. In spite of taking several steps to curb the pollution, the situation is increasingly becoming alarming. It is the lack of awareness among the general public that needs to be addressed.

Many festivals are still being celebrated in a wrong way. We can celebrate Ganesh Chaturthi in an eco-friendly way, by making idols of Lord Ganesh with eco-friendly products and not with Plaster of Paris which can pollute the water bodies.

During Diwali people burst crackers and pollute the air because of which many people suffer through breathing problems.

There are some other simple tips that can be followed if people want, to have a completely green eco-friendly festival. Use recyclable or reusable items in your festivals. Avoid throwing anything out. It is also important to inspire others to do the same.

Don't fall for propaganda

Why has the climate of India taken a violent face? What is affecting the people of India? Is it the Citizenship Bill or National Register of Citizens?

From a long time we can observe the negativity among some communities towards the bill. People from different universities, institutions and from all other fields are protesting against the implementation of CAB. They claim that it is against our fundamental rights. These protesters carrying big placards, and posters, showing the picture of Gandhi and Ambedkar which signifies that something is against the ideology of Gandhi and Ambedkar. But the violence created by the so called people on the road and other public places like putting the vehicles on fire, stone pelting, don't you think even this is against the ideology of Gandhi.

NRC which everybody knows was implemented in 1955, so an atmosphere against it after so many years, why? What were these protesters doing all these years? Why didn't they oppose it at that moment. The specific Article 14 of Constitution talks about equality. It says that there is right to equality to all the citizens of India. So when it is for all the citizens and these all protester are the citizens of India means there is nothing which can affect their rights. Only it can affect the illegal people residing in India, who have come illegally to India from Bangladesh, Afghanistan or Pakistan. Then why are the citizens of India getting against its own government. The evil minds do not like peace in the nation and thus they always instigate the crowd so that there is a civil war like situation. The youth of Jamia Millia Islamia University is following a wrong leadership which is instigating them to protest, or I should say that now-a-days the students of different universities are finding it a very good trend to follow which they are enjoying by going against their nation and the government.

These students are being used by the political leaders for their gain. They have been made the toys of political propaganda. It is a request to the innocent citizens of India that don't fall for propaganda.

Plastic is very harmful especially for our environment. We know that plastic is banned by the government but, still people use plastic. We need to protect our environment by using paper bags and eco-friendly products.

Plastic is not a bio- degradable product. It is very dangerous for our environment. We should use that product which is manufactured by natural things to tell people or spread information about not using plastic, and disadvantages of plastics are our duty to spread awareness, among the people, that use eco- friendly products. We should maintain harmony with nature. Firstly we understand that plastic is very harmful for our environment as well as our health.

So say no to plastic and use eco friendly products.

Importance of fitness

A person who is fit is capable to its fullest extent. Physical and mental fitness play an important role in our lives and people who are both, physically and mentally fit are less prone to medical conditions as well.

How we can become more fit. Becoming fit requires a change in lifestyle. You will have to incorporate a regular exercise routine in your life and also eat healthy food. By avoiding junk food, fizzy drinks, alcohol and by getting adequate amounts of rest, you will be able to become physically and mentally fit. This is especially important during covid times when millions are affected. We need to make our immunity strong to survive in these difficult times.
